

TRANSPLANT JOURNAL of AUSTRALASIA

The official Journal of the Transplant Nurses' Association

GUIDELINE FOR AUTHORS

The TJA is published three times a year. Original contributions relevant to organ and tissue donation and transplantation are invited. Manuscripts should be submitted to the Editor by email (TJAeditor@tna.asn.au) or via the TNA website (www.tna.asn.au).

COPYRIGHT

The TJA does not hold copyright. As such, authors are permitted to re-publish their work. However, authors must disclose to other Editors that parts of their manuscript have been previously published in the TJA.

MANUSCRIPT OUTLINE

Research, audit, survey or project report

- Title;
- Abstract;
- Introduction (what and why did you start?);
- Methods (what did you do and how did you do it?);
- Results (what did you find?);
- Discussion (what does it mean?);
- Conclusion, including study limitations and recommendations for further research;
- References.

These headings can be altered to suit the type of study you have completed.

Article, literature review, conference paper

- Title;
- Abstract;
- Introduction;
- Discussion – include appropriate subheadings and reference to the literature;
- Conclusion/recommendations;
- References.

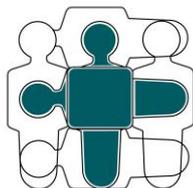

Clinical case study

The focus of these papers is patient care and their scope is unlimited. A sample format follows:

- Title;
- Abstract;
- Introduction;
- Presentation of the case including nursing care and medical treatment;
- Nursing outcomes/implications;
- Conclusion/recommendations;
- References.

Unit review and nurse/coordinator/doctor profile

- Title;
- Introduction;
- Unit or nurse/coordinator/doctor profile;
 - History, achievements, patient stories, innovations, milestones.
- Future directions;
- Conclusion;
- References and photos (if applicable).

MANUSCRIPT PREPARATION

Title Page

- Title
- Complete author's names & credentials
- Corresponding author's name, work address, phone number and e-mail.

Abstract

- 100 – 250 words

Manuscript

- 1500 – 5000 words
- Pages numbered, not including title page
- Double-spaced, including references
- Title on page one but no author identification.

References

Follow the American Medical Association style. This includes the following:

- All references must be cited in numerical order in text (as superscript numbers) and listed in that order in reference list.
- Example:
 1. Nader EA, Lambe C, Talbotec C, Pigneur B, Lacaille F, Garnier-Lengline H, et al. Outcome of home parenteral nutrition in 251 children over a 14 year period: report of a single centre. Am J Clin Nutr. 2016;103(5):132–135.
- Unpublished papers and personal communication are placed in text, not in references.

Tables, Graphs, Figures

- Labelled and numbered
- Referenced in order, in body of paper
- Each on a separate page at the end of the manuscript
- Permission/reference included if published elsewhere.

Ethics

Manuscripts reporting research involving humans must include in the text a statement that the research was approved by a research ethics review committee.

SUBMISSION

- Submit manuscripts to the Editor as word document by email TJAeditor@tna.asn.au.
- Manuscripts are subject to independent review by at least two peers.
- When the manuscript has been reviewed, usually within 2 months, the editor will advise the first author whether it has been accepted for publication or if revision is recommended.
- Authors looking to publish in the TJA are invited to contact the Editor or members of the Editorial Board (details on the TNA website and in each TJA edition).
- Support and guidance at any stage of manuscript preparation is provided upon request.
- Deadlines are set by the Editor.